

Sinclair
Broadcasting's
decision to force
their stations to
air an anti-Kerry
documentary days
before the election
is a clear example
of the dangers of media consolidation.

Sinclair uses the public airwaves free
of charge, and is obligated by law to serve the public interest. But when large companies
control the
airwaves, we get more of what's good
for the bottom line
and less of what we need for our democracy.

What Sinclair
proposes is paramount to a free
political add that their stations are forced to air.

American government
used to be "for the people,
by the people".
However, it is rapidly becoming a government "for the corporations, by the corporations". This leaves most citizens
at the bottom in the decision making processes of government.

I oppose free
political advertising
sponsored by media
giants for either
political party and therefore oppose Sinclair's proposed
free add over our
free airwaves.
Thank you.
